Report on LabVIEW Hands on training program with CLAD Exam

The Department of Electronics and Instrumentation Engineering is conducted the skill development programme on the titled "LabVIEW Hands on training program with CLAD Exam to the third year students of EIE and ECE department from 09-05-2022 to 12-05-2022. The training was given by the external expert Er.S.Esakki Raja, CLAD Trainer, VI Solutions, Bangalore. 22 students attended the programme. The fundamentals of LabVIEW were taught by internal faculty members and an Industry expert from Optithought solutions during 22-12-2021-04-01-2022. Internal faculty members handled the sessions on fundamentals of LabVIEW and programming concepts. The Industry expert, Mr.T.R.Balaji, LabVIEW trainer from Optithought solutions gave CLAD focused training. The students had hands on experience with data types and programming concepts of loops, structures, arrays, clusters, file I/O operations, SubVI and Data Acquisition. The students are also given activities like creating programs, discussion of CLAD sample questions and assessments. The CLAD exam was conducted in our college campus on 12-05.2022. The questions are set by National Instruments, Bangalore. The passing criterion for CLAD exam certification is 70%. Our students got the score less than 70%. The students gave the feedback that the level of question is difficult to answer. However, this programme will help the students to do the curriculum projects and scope to place in the core companies like Tessolve Semiconductors.
