Report on Alumni Guest Lecture Series on "Placement Opportunities through LinkedIn"

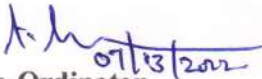

Department of Mechatronics Engineering of Kamaraj College of Engineering & Technology organized an Alumni Guest Lecture Series on "Placement Opportunities Through LinkedIn" by Er. P.Ganjendran, (Alumnus batch 2015-2019) Quality Lead, Ashok Leyland, Chennai on 7th February 2022 from 11.30 p. m - 12.40 p. m.

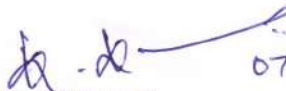

The main theme of the guest lecture is to motivate the students towards the core placement preparations. In this lecture Er. P.Ganjendran, insisted the students to focus on the core subjects and Soft Skills Development and Communication Skills.

He insisted the students to create a profile in LinkedIn and other social media. He advised the students to post their ideas in their LinkedIn Page. He asked the students to search the industries based on their area of interest. He asked the students to identify and to develop rapport with the industrial persons working in their area. He shared his experience about the project and explained how the project helped to get placement in the same company. Current III Year Students interacted with him and raise the questions about a salary package offered in core industries for fresher, Er.P.Ganjendran replied depending upon their skills and performance it will varied.

A total of 38 participants from III Year Mechatronics Engineering attended the guest lecture.

Dr. K. Kannan, Professor and Head/Mechatronics Engineering welcomed the gathering and Mr. A. Arulkumar, AP/ Mechatronics Engineering proposed the vote of thanks.
